

The Behaviour Specialist is part of the Young Adults Team.

The Behaviour Specialist works with you to support you in different parts of your life

The Behaviour Specialist will come visit you

The Behaviour Specialist asks questions about your life

We can speak about what makes you happy or sad or cross

The Behaviour Specialist will ask the people who know you best some questions about your life

The Behaviour Specialist will write a support plan for you with all this information to help you live a happy life

The support plan will help those around you to support you in the way you want

If you do not want to speak with me, you can tell me

If you do not want me to speak to your family or those who know you, you can tell me

You can ask questions about what we are doing at any time
