

What Does A Social Worker do?

Social Workers support people and their families in difficult times.

We support you to make choices about your life and ensure your voice is heard.

We work with you, your family, staff and others to help make a plan to ensure you get the supports and services that you require.

We work with you, your family, staff and others to put plans in place which help to keep you safe from abuse.

We help explain your entitlements and rights.

We support you and your family to access short breaks in a number of different ways.

How Does a Social Worker do this?

We develop relationships with you and your family and may visit you and your family in your home.

We can meet with you to talk about difficult things in your life and support you to come up with ideas which may help.

We can meet with you on your own or in a group to help you deal with loss and change.

We assess you and your family's needs by talking to you, your family and others who support you.

We will keep your information confidential and only share on a need-to-know basis.
